Years of Suffering

Palled to Cure.

Miss Mabel F. Dawkins, 1214 Lafayette St., Fort Wayne, Ind., writes: "For three years I was troubled with catarrh and blood disease. I tried several doctors and a dozen different remedies, but none of them did me any good. A friend told me of Hood's Sarsaparilla. I took two bottles of this medicine, and was as well and strong as ever. I feel like a different person and recommend Hood's to any one suffering from catarrh."

Last Quarterly Conference.

The last quarterly conference of the year of the Washington Street M. E. was not shown that he shot at Foster.

Another exception is concerned with the action of the trial court in refusing the motion of the defense that the Commonwealth be required to consoidate all five of the indictments against Claude Allen and try him on all at the same time. The effect of the court's decision was that the prisoner could be tried over and over again. Another excepts to the action of the court in admitting to the jury men who had expressed opinions regarding the guilt or innocence of the accused, but who said they could divest their minds of impressions and give the secoused a fair trial.

NEWIATURE ALWANAC. November 6, 1912. HIGH TIDE:

Well, now it's all over! Let's wave the olive branch of peace and settle down to business.

The country has harvested this fall the biggest crops in its history!

Regardless of politics, the tariff and the trusts, a year of prosperity is here, and here are prosperity clothes. Suits from $15 to $40.

Overcoats, $12.50 to $50; and never in the world's history was better clothing for the price! To-day we make a special showing of new patterns in grays and browns at just twenty dollars.

Come and see.
